

Imam Hussain a.s.

A bright glare the hard sun burning in the sky
The relentless wind blowing air ever so dry
Each footstep taken falls on the unyielding land
Each footstep taken falls on the burning sand
Oh Hussains hardships in kerbala

For days you did not have any water to drink
The thirst would make it hard for any of us to think
Yet you continued with the intentions you came
Even though you knew your death would come the same
Oh Hussains struggles in kerbala

Then against an insurmountable foe you were
That day only a few who your fate they would share
And against such large numbers they were so brave
Knowing on this day they'd be going to their graves
Your Difficulties in kerbala

You were all there spreading Islam with every breath
Trying to save all those you could until your deaths
So few in numbers yet it is the quality
On that day we know yours was the greater army
Hussain remembered for eternity

That day there was such a great difficulty
Having to watch the death of your family
Truly Karbala was a great tragedy
The day we will remember throughout history
Hussain ya aba Abdullah

The poet Saeed Alhakeem asks for your dua