

The rose Fatima a.s.

Standing in a field where the sun beams down
A field of flowers where winds swirl around
One flower above the others resides
Gently in the breeze swaying side to side
A great flower that has been blessed
Whose taller than all of the rest

Fatima was how all women should be
Kind, courageous and was always ready
To defend father and Husband Ali
Leading and inspiring so righteously
Your attributes were so ample
You were the greatest example

The flower it shimmers and sparkles white
Emanating a pure glow, day and night
And beaming from such a glorious height
The flower of fatima glows so bright
One of a kind here only found
Greatest flower from all around

You wanted no glory no riches no fame
And yet you had to witness Muhammeds pain
Who else but Fatima cleaned Muhammeds wounds
Who else but her was the flower that bloomed
So much pain fatima endured
For Islams success she ensured

A fountain of knowledge the purest river
Fatima your petals never wither
Others may come and others will fall
But the Rose of Fatima always stands tall
So when others look they can see
Your great flower swaying freely

Fatima you make patience impatient
You're the flower when crushed leaves a fragrance
You're the mother of Hassan and Hussain
Oh we won't forget those who caused you pain
Fatima was taken too soon

The flower in eternal bloom
