

Fatima al Zahra a.s.

Fatimat al Zahra remembered today
Now we recall the time that she passed away
Not only did the prophet leave the world then
But his daughter followed with her son mehsin
Today what a tragedy

So very many hardships you had to bear
And your father the prophet you had to care
All the adversaries he faced who was there
Only you had your fathers burden to share
We remember you today

So much abuse your father had to suffer
It was you who cared for him like a mother
For he was the prophet of all of mankind
But towards your value the whole world was blind
Your death was a misery

Truly unjust it was how you passed away
You were crushed behind the door, shown no mercy
And your son mehsin he was not even born
You'd not seen him yet his death you had to mourn
We'll never forget mehsin

Not only your father was taken from you

But shortly after your son was taken too
Still you were an inspiration to our deen
Fatima of all the ladies you're the queen
Your Sayidat ul Sadat
