

Fatima Al Zahra

Who else but Fatima married Ali
The greatest couple living happily
Perfect every minute every hour
He was the lion she was the flower

In all things they were an inspiration
Two of the greatest of all creation
Two shining stars in this vast dark night
Leading humanity towards the light

But your intertwining was not to last
For your father from this life he passed
And on top of this you suffered more
Allah's wrath on who crushed you with the door

The death of your father and your unborn
There was too much for one person to mourn
And when you saw Muhammed in your sleep
You knew that very soon him you would meet

The Poet Saeed Alhakeem asks for your dua
