

Yes today is a day for celebration
For today's a day of unification
Unification of all of creation
Under the banner of a Muslim Nation
A historic event before unseen
A day where there is completion of our deen

A leader who wouldn't become an oppressor
Wouldn't be an abuser or an aggressor
Would stay true not change into a transgressor
Only one could be Mohammed's successor
There is only one man to have this fate
And of all he is the greatest of the great

The time had come for his final pilgrimage
And for the declaration of heritage
Sun beating down as Mohammed looks around
Looks at those gathered as he faces the crowd
A silence only the wind in the sand
And then Mohammed reaches for Ali's hand

I bear witness to the day that changed it all
As the crowd quietened Mohammed would call
A hero a warrior stands beside me
A leader unequalled who else but Ali
I entrust the future to this man here
Commanding the faithful on Eid ul Ghadeer

The Poet Saeed Alhakeem asks for your dua