

Imam Mehdi a.s

Such an inspiration
Hidden within our nation
Engraved within our heart
Yet we are all shed apart

The sun between the cloud
The light among the stars
The secret that is hidden
Yet he holds a great mission

He calls yet we fail to listen
Yet his heart still waits and glisters
Where is he we ask
Yet that is not our task

To remove this universal cast
And aim forward moving on from the past
The time is going fast
Yet his revolution will be the last

For mahdi the great
His appearance we wait
For evil we hate
Remove it before its too late

And peace we must create
To please his imamate
Is our fate

A true savior he is
And he comes with full bliss
For his soul we do miss
Together we can do this
