

Prophet Muhammed pbuh

Our hero Our hero is name is Muhammed
And today we remember the day of his birth
Brighter than the suns rays
Set the world to a blaze
For Muhammed's birth is the greatest of all days

If the world was an ocean then he'd be a boat
For we'd be all drowning and he'd keep us afloat
Drowning in our own sin
He would take us all in
For there is no one whose like prophet Muhammed

If the world was the sky then he would be the sun
He'd be shining so brightly onto everyone
Creating the bright rays
With his shining sun rays
For no one reaches Muhammed's elevation

If the world was a field then hed be a flower
Blessing us with his scent every single hour
Standing ever so tall
And he never does fall
Theres no one who can replace Prophet Muhammed

If the whole world was darkness then hed be the light
And piercing the nights veil hed be shining so bright
Forever he would glow
And to him we would go
For prophet Muhammed is our salvation

On this day we remember the day he was born
To never forget him in our hearts we have sworn
For hes our compass
Guiding us to the right
Muhammed Muhammed we'll say your name all night
