

Prophet Muhammed p.b.u.h.

Imagine a world that's devoid of light
A world in which there does not exist sight
No day time but a perpetual night
Where there's no difference between wrong and right
A world that is Filled with no hope
Only darkness
Envelopes it

This would be the case if not for one man
Who did not take the beliefs of his clan
Opened his mind to the possibility
Of there more to life than idolatry
He truly
Open minded
And was ready
To accept God

Have you ever asked yourself this question
Have you ever thought who this man might be
The prophet of the greatest prophecy
The pinnacle of all humanity
The greatest of
All of the greats
The best of all
Who ever lived

Perfection. That is what he is described
The greatest being to have existed.
Greatness above all we have ever known
The status of a king upon his throne
Higher than all
Of the past kings
For his status
Was the prophet

We do not perceive the difficulty
Picture now this eventuality
Teaching and preaching about modesty
Whilst being the best of humanity
A modest man
Humble he was
Yet the highest Status he had

For the prophets shoulders were wide and strong
The fate of the world upon them belonged
Carrying the future of humanity
And yet carrying this burden proudly
An without him
Where would we be
A dark place for
Humanity
