

Prophet Mohammed

An inspiration

A common infatuation

A guiding light to creation

No difference between young and old

No differentiation between weak and bold

For this man saved humanity

Saved humanity with full prosperity

For this man was as strong as led

And his name was muhammad

He helped the poor in time of need

He helped the rich in time of greed

A helping hand to all who need

To please allah to do a good deed

His heart was complete not a single hole

For a strong pole to our soul

To all lost he led

And his name is muhammad

For he preached and he preached

To all corners did he reach

To spread the message of his lord
And this message truly poured
And his face truly did shine and now we visit his holy shrine

To remember muhammad al ameen
I imagine him as a pure dream
As he saved all mankind
And now we are unblind

As he spread the message of allah
And for this we say alhamdulillah

From darkness to light he led
And his name is muhammed
For all hungry he fed
And for islam a true head
For all truth he said
And our hearts not dead
And his name was mohammed

He led and he led
Yet people all said
For muhammad a liar
Yet we hold him much higher

And he did it ever so rightly
But the people didn't listen
But his heart stayed and glistened
For he is Muhammad
No doubt not even slightly
For he did truly guide me

A shining star
And thankful we all are
For muhammed al ameen
A man whose heart so clean
To islam we all lean
To please muhammad a dream
